BULLETIN.

Amsterdam, via London, Jan. 20.—(3:30 a. m.)—From Kollum, Vlieland and Terschelling, the Nieuws Van Den Dag has received news that three airships were returning from the west and flying eastward. It was reported also that gun firing was audible to the westward of Vlieland.

BULLETIN.

London, Jan. 20.—(3:52 a. m.)—The Daily Mail reports that a Zeppelin appeared over Ipswich during the night but that it did no damage. Ipswich is in Suffolk county which lies to the south of Norfolk. It is about 75 miles southwest of Yarmouth.

BULLETIN.

Amsterdam, via London, Jan. 20.—(1:55 a. m.)—Lieut. Gen. Freiherr Von Ompteda of the German army has been killed in the western arena at the head of his brigade.

LONDON, Jan. 20.—(2:25 a. m.)—German aircraft made long threatened raids on England last night and attempted to blow up with bombs the King's royal residence in Sandringham, County Norfolk. King George and Queen Mary who had been staying at Sandringham with their family, only yesterday returned to London to resume their residence in Buckingham Palace.

It is not definitely known whether the raiders were Zeppelins or aeroplanes, but Zeppelins were reported yesterday afternoon as passing over the North Sea in a westerly direction and there is an inclination to believe these were the raiders. The night was quite calm but very dark and cloudy, which made it impossible for the people in the towns over which they passed to distinguish even the outlines of the raiders, though the whirr of their propellers and the droning of their motors could be heard distinctly.

A Zeppelin is reported to have been brought down by the fire of a warship at Hunstanton, a few miles north of Sandringham.

Bombs were dropped in Yarmouth, Kings Lynn, Sandringham, Cromer, Sheringham and Beeston and everywhere except at Beeston casualties and damage to property resulted.

The first place visited was the widely known seaside resort and fishing town of Yarmouth. Two persons, a man and a woman, were killed, a number of other persons were injured and much damage to property was done by the raiders in their visit which lasted less than ten minutes. Four or five bombs were dropped in Yarmouth.

When the attack began the authorities gave instructions that all lights in the town be extinguished and other precautionary measures were taken. Few signs of panic were seen during the raid.

Apparently the raiders after visiting Yarmouth flew over Cromer where they dropped bombs and then went to Sheringham and Beeston, turning inland from their they made for Sandringham dropping explosive missiles there and at Kings Lynn where a boy was killed and a man, woman and a child were injured. Two houses were destroyed. The damage done in Sandringham has not been reported. It is known, however, that the royal palace was not harmed. At Sheringham a bomb penetrated a house but did not explode.

Only yesterday Scotland Yard authorities issued instructions concerning measures to be taken by the police and other officials in the event of an air raid.

to hold themselves in readiness for a possible raid on London and the fire brigades were warned to be in readiness.

The report of the attack on Norfolk county caused considerable commotion in London. Searchlights all about the city were busily engaged throughout the evening scouring the sky with their rays to pick up any aircraft that might approach. Up to a late hour, however, there was no sign of any aerial visitor.

Reports reaching London are to the effect that a squadron of six Zeppelins crossed over the North Sea and on reaching the coast line separated, some of them taking a southerly direction and other an opposite course. These reports have not been confirmed however.

All available news received up to an early hour today (Wednesday) from the scene of the aerial attacks seems to confirm the belief that the raiders were in airships and that after their visits to the Norfolk towns they turned toward the sea again, making no attempt to come further south or to visit London.

From Cromer it is reported that the airship visit there occurred at about 8:35 o'clock last night but at ten o'clock one appeared again at Ranton, midway between Sheringham and Cromer and then turned seaward, taking a northwesterly course.

A despatch from Yarmouth to the Times vouchsafes the opinion that the raiders were in dirigibles for what appeared to be searchlights were seen at a great altitude but, it adds, some people there believe they were not the beams of a search light but the flash of something resembling a magnesium flare. To a large extent the people followed official advice and took refuge in the basements of houses.

"I believe there were two airships," said a resident of Sheringham to the correspondent of the Daily Mail in that town. "I certainly saw one myself. It was flying at a great height. I am unable to judge the distance but should say it was no less than 3,000 feet in the air. It was a wonderful and awe inspiring sight."

"The Zeppelin, like a great cigar, lay dim and dark against the blackness of the sky but its outlines were unmistakable. It was fitted with searchlights which now and then were flashed below, casting weird rays of light in dark town and country side."

"Then came the crash of bombs. There was a tremendous sensation in the town but no panic as the people hurried into the streets. The damage was not great."

Great excitement in Yarmouth. Yarmouth, via London, Jan. 19.—(11:50 p. m.)—A hostile aircraft passed over Yarmouth at 8:30 tonight and dropped several bombs. Considerable damage to property resulted and it is feared there was loss of life. One man is reported to have had his head blown off.

One bomb fell in Norfolk Square close to the sea front and another on the south quay. A third struck the York Road drill hall, fragments of the casing of the shell crashing through the glass roof of the billiard room of the headquarters of the national reserves. A fourth missile fell near the Trinity depot.

After the attack the aircraft sailed in a southwesterly direction. One man was found outside his home on St. Peters Plain. His head had been crushed. He was identified as Samuel Smith, a shoemaker. A woman who has not yet been identified also was found dead, while a soldier was discovered in Norfolk Square with a wound in his chest.

So far as can be ascertained these are the only casualties at Yarmouth, but owing to the complete darkness that prevails as a result of the cutting off of the electric light service this statement cannot be accepted as definite. The greatest damage done by any of the bombs resulted from one that fell in St. Peters Plain near St. Peter's church which damaged a whole row of houses, breaking all the windows and littering the street with slate from the roofs and brick.

The towns of Yarmouth, Sandringham, Kings Lynn and Cromer are all in the province of Norfolk which abuts the North Sea about 150 miles northeast of London.

Yarmouth, known as Great Yarmouth, and Cromer are favorite winter resorts while Sandringham contains the country palace of the late King Edward. Kings Lynn is a seaport and market town. It contains ship building yards, iron foundries, machine shops and other industries.

If the aircraft which made the attack were the ones which passed over the island of Ameland they probably started from the vicinity of Cuxhaven. In this case they miles across the North Sea to reach England.

Drops Four Bombs.

Kings Lynn, Jan. 19.—via London, Jan. 20.—(3:07 a. m.)—It was 10:45 o'clock when the loud whirr of a Zeppelin approaching Kings Lynn was heard. A previous warning of its approach had been given by the explosion of a bomb which it had dropped between the royal village of Sandringham and Denning of its approach had been given singham, not far from the Wash.

Reaching Kings Lynn the aerial visitor circled unseen over the town and dropped four bombs which exploded with terrific detonations. People thrust their heads out of bedroom windows in amazement, asking what had happened. Great flashes of light accompanied the explosions. One of the bombs exploded near the docks, throwing splinters from its shell into the market place. Another started a fire. After hovering over the town for 15 minutes the Zeppelin appeared to continue its journey along the borders of the Wash.

As the town is in complete darkness it is difficult to ascertain to-night the extent of the damage done by the raiders.

French Report Advance.

London, Jan. 19.—(11 p. m.)—Weather conditions have become so severe in France and Flanders, where there have been heavy falls of snow, that the fighting has been confined almost entirely to artillery engagements. There has been an exception, however, to the southwest of Verdun near Pont-A-Mousson, where the French are reported to have approached a few hundred yards nearer the German frontier.

Military men attach considerable importance to the operations in this region, for, they say in conjunction with the continued French pressure on the German lines to the west of the fortress of Perthes, they will check if successful, the German operations against Verdun, around which they have had a half circle drawn since they invaded France.

Of the progress of the battles in east Prussia and Poland the official reports give less information than usual. Locality seems to be avoided when a big new movement is commencing, such as that which the Russians are carrying out between the east Prussian border and the lower Vistula. In this operation, as far as can be judged from the scant details furnished, the Russians are making a big sweep to the west and north, evidently in an endeavor to prevent Field Marshal von Hindenburg's forces from forming a junction with the German troops in east Prussia.

Some Petrograd newspaper correspondents credit the Russians with crossing the Vistula to the south and east of Plock. If this is true, military men say, they must have a very large force and probably are in a position to threaten the left flank of the German army which has been trying for weeks to force its way through to Warsaw.

In some quarters in London there is a belief that the Germans will soon retire.

FURTHER EARTHQUAKE SHOCKS FELT IN ITALY

SOUTHWESTERN EXTREMITY IS SHAKEN TO ITS FOUNDATIONS

Is Felt in All the Recording Stations Through Italy—Zone Where Effect of Shock Took Place is Barren—Fifteen Minor Disturbances Occur.

Rome, Jan. 19.—Italy has not ceased to suffer from seismic disturbances. They began with heavy shocks in central Italy last Wednesday morning which destroyed many towns and villages, causing great loss of life. The shocks continued last night, when the southwestern extremity, comprising the department of Calabria, was shaken to its foundations. Of this latest disturbance Prof. Martorelli, of the Seismographic observatory says it was felt in all the recording stations through Italy and showed a telluric revival the consequences of which it was difficult to foresee. The epicentrum of this earthquake was in the province of Cosenza. Its strength says Prof. Martorelli was equal to that of the Messina earthquake, but fortunately the zone where the effect of the shock took place was barren, not having been built over. Fifteen additional minor shocks occurred during the day.

Causes Many Avalanches. Geneva, Switzerland, via Paris, Jan. 19.—(11:50 p. m.)—An earthquake occurred throughout Switzerland last night. The shock was felt between 11:30 and 11:40 o'clock. It extended from Lugano to Basel and from Lausanne to St. Gall. Bern also felt the shock which was severest however, at Neuchatel where several houses were damaged. Elsewhere the shocks were slight. The disturbance caused many avalanches in the Alps.

Fear Considerable Damage. Paris, Jan. 19.—Violent earthquakes occurred Monday in Zante and Cephalonia, islands in the Ionian group in the Meterranean, according to an Athens despatch. It is feared considerable damage resulted.

Hasten Burial of Dead. Avezzano, Jan. 19.—A large number of bodies were taken from the ruins today. The authorities ordered that burial be hastened, fearing that if they were held for identification an epidemic of disease might follow.

The expedition organized by American women and directed by the Rev. Walter Lowrie, rector of the American church, continued today the distribution of relief, especially in the small villages. Today the expedition distributed three tons of bread, one ton of flour, several thousand blankets and an enormous quantity of cheese and sausage.

At Sora today there was a slight demonstration on the part of the people who demanded bread. The authorities requested the government to send daily to Sora food sufficient to maintain the destitute people.

IOWA LEGISLATURE MAY TAKE HAND IN FARM SALE CONTROVERSY

Federal Authorities Refuse to Permit Sales until Sixty Days After Last Case of Cattle Disease Disappears.

Des Moines, Iowa, Jan. 19.—Refusal of the federal authorities to permit farm stock sales in Johnson, Jones, Jackson, Clinton, Cedar and Iowa counties, until sixty days after the last case of foot and mouth disease has disappeared in each, probably will result in the Iowa legislature taking a hand in the controversy. Senator Shean of Cedar Jones district tonight stated that the senators and representatives of the six counties will meet tomorrow to plan some action. Telegrams received from Washington today refused permission to withdraw the sixty day rule. This will prevent any farm sales until the following dates in each county:

Johnson, Jan. 25th; Jones, Feb. 1st; Jackson, March 1st; Clinton, March 10th; Cedar, March 14th; Iowa, March 16th.

NINETEEN ARE SHOT IN BATTLE BETWEEN DEPUTIES AND STRIKERS

One Dies and Another is in a Serious Condition—Deputies are Said to Have Opened Fire on Strikers When Train Stopped.

Roosevelt, N. J., Jan. 19.—In a battle between sixty sheriff's deputies and striking employees of the American Agricultural Chemical company here today nineteen men were shot. One died and another is in a serious condition. The clash occurred at the station of the Central Railroad of New Jersey when several hundred strikers approached the squad of deputies who were supposed to be waiting the arrival of a train carrying strike-breakers. The responsibility for the battle has not been fixed, but Prosecutor Florence said tonight strikers and police officers told him that as the train stopped, the deputies opened fire and pursued the strikers as they fled into the marshes. All of the wounded men are strikers. One has a revolver wound and fifty buckshot wounds in his back and ten are suffering severely. An inquiry was opened immediately and the evidence obtained will be placed before the grand jury. J. W. Crane, a city official said the strikers were unarmed and were attacked by the deputies.

ALLEGES CONSOLIDATION TO BE A VIOLATION OF ANTI-TRUST LAW

Notice of an Appeal From Decision of Utilities Commission Approving Merger of New York Central Lines is Filed.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 19.—Alleging the consolidation of the New York Central lines to be a violation of the Federal anti-trust laws and the state constitution, notice of an appeal from the recent decision of the Illinois Public Utilities commission approving the merger, was filed here today in the circuit court of Sangamon county. The notice was filed by Elizabeth N. Zollner an attorney from Chicago. He said he represented the Continental Securities company, the General Investment company and C. H. Verner and company, all of New York, who hold about $400,000 worth of stock in the transportation companies involved.

The attorney asserted that other lines controlled by the New York Central were parallel with the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern road and that the consolidation would make control of parallel lines illegal. The utilities commission's approval of a merger of the New York Central railroad and the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern road was equivalent to legalizing a violation of the law he asserted.

ILLINOIS ATTORNEY TO ATTEND INDIANAPOLIS COURT TODAY

Will Hear Arguments in Case of Politicians Charged with Election Frauds—Expects to Get Information for Use in Illinois Probe.

Danville, Ill., Jan. 19.—Assistant District Attorney A. B. Dennis will tomorrow attend federal Judge A. B. Anderson's court at Indianapolis for the purpose of hearing arguments of attorneys in demurrers in the case of Mayor Donn Roberts and other Terre Haute, Indiana, politicians charged with election frauds.

It is expected that much valuable information may be gained there which will be of use in the present investigation of similar frauds in the eighteenth district.

District Attorney Karch today said while it was very difficult to obtain tangible, actionable evidence of frauds, many small fry politicians are eager to talk, and a few of them have given information of value. Referring to reports that prospective witnesses were being intimidated by interested politicians, Mr. Karch said the matter had been brought to his attention, and he would take steps to punish anyone found guilty of doing so.

SPEAKERSHIP DEADLOCK IS GROWING TIGHTER

FOUR RESULTLESS BALLOTS ARE TAKEN IN ILLINOIS HOUSE

Backers of Province Decide to Stand by Their Candidate "to the Last Ditch"—Senate Session Proves Brief—Large Crowd Expecting Stormy Meeting is Disappointed.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 19.—Strenuous efforts were made tonight by several factions to agree upon the organization of the lower house of the Illinois legislature but the only result seemed to be a further tightening of the speakership deadlock which has existed for two weeks. Fifteen first term Republicans at the call of Representatives Turnbaugh, Keisinger and Leich met and signed a petition asking David Shanahan of Chicago, chairman of the Republican caucus, to call a conference of all Republican members, both wet and dry for two o'clock tomorrow in an effort to agree upon a speakership.

The first termers insisted they were not hostile to Walter M. Province but that so far Province had not obtained the necessary votes to elect him to the speakership and they wanted some one who could be elected at once. About thirty-five Province supporters held another meeting tonight and announced their intention of sticking to their candidate until he releases them.

Democratic senators battled several hours in caucus tonight in an effort to agree upon the course of action to be followed while the election recounts in the eleventh and twenty-third senatorial districts are in progress. Reports from the caucus room indicated that the senators were far from agreed. Another caucus will be held before the morning senate session tomorrow.

Springfield, Ills., Jan. 19.—Instead of gradually reaching the breaking point, the speakership deadlock in the house of representatives of the Illinois general assembly caused by a division over the wet and dry issue is growing tighter and members say it may continue indefinitely.

Four resultless ballots were taken in the house today and considering that further rail calls would be useless, the house adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning when the balloting will be resumed. A total of twenty two ballots has been taken since the legislature convened two weeks ago.

Immediately after the session backers of Walter M. Province of Taylorville, the Republican caucus nominee, held a short meeting at which it was decided to stand by their candidate "to the last ditch."

Province's opponents had circulated rumors earlier in the day that some of the Province men would abandon him tomorrow regardless of their caucus pledges. Other stories being circulated around the hotel lobbies were to the effect that some of the seventeen wets who refused to enter the Republican caucus were wavering and would throw their votes to Province tomorrow. This the wets strenuously denied. The Democrats seem to be at greater loggerheads over the speakership situation than the Republicans. Although the dry Democrats are standing together loyally, the wets are divided. Most of them, however, are continuing to rally around the banner of Lee O'Neill Brown.

Believing that they could induce some of their colleagues to join them within the next 24 hours, house members who attended tonight's Democratic caucus postponed organizing until tomorrow night when they say they will select candidates for speaker, clerk and other prominent positions. A committee was selected to invite the holdout Democrats to join in tomorrow night's caucus.

Democratic members of the senate disappointed a large audience tonight by forcing an adjournment of the senate immediately after it was convened.

The crowd, which had gathered in anticipation of a possible repetition of last week's stormy sessions quickly filed out of the galleries and three minutes after Lieut. Gov. O'Hara had rapped the body to order, the chamber was empty. It took the lieutenant governor's vote to decide the tie on adjourning. Senator Shaw of Decatur, indignant because the chairmanship of the labor committee, held by him two years ago, was about to slip from him refused to participate in the Democratic party caucus tonight and would not vote with his party on the roll call demanded by the Republicans on the adjournment motion.

REFUSES TO LOWER WAGES.

Des Moines, Iowa, Jan. 19.—The Des Moines council today refused to lower the wage scale for common laborers employed in city departments in order that unemployed men here may be given work. The request was made by charitable organizations who asked that the rate be reduced from $2.50 to $2 a day. The council was informed that approximately 4,000 men in Des Moines are without work. Plans for a municipal employment bureau are being made.

EXPERTS SPEAK ON CATTLE DISEASE

Agree That Slaughter Is Only Successful Method of Combatting Epidemic

ADVISE ASSEMBLYMEN

Importance of Immediate Drastic Action Is Impressed Upon Legislators By Speakers

GOVERNOR DUNNE MAKES ADDRESS

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 19.—Experts in the employ of the United States and various states, together with Governor Dunne and others impressed upon members of the general assembly this afternoon the importance of immediate drastic action to halt the ravages of the foot and mouth disease among the livestock in the state. The assemblymen were advised regarding the history, symptoms and results of the disease, the speakers agreeing that the only successful method of combatting it when it reaches epidemic proportions is to slaughter infected and exposed animals and fumigate the premises where they were kept. It was agreed that Secretary of State Stevenson, who presided over the conference, immediately shall have printed and distributed twenty thousand copies of the addresses made in the conference together with the questions and answers brought out in the discussion.

Former Speaker Edward D. Shurtleff of Molineux county called the attention of the committee to reports that cattle had been shipped to the Union Stock Yards at Chicago and confined in the quarantined section, where they sold at times as much as a dollar a hundred weight lower than the price prevailing in the open area of the yards and that the shippers later had seen the same stock transferred from the quarantined section of the yards into open pens in the open section.

J. R. Brown, editor of a Chicago farm and livestock publication, declared that such a procedure would be an impossibility unless the federal government became so lax in its supervision as to permit its representatives to fall asleep at the gate to the quarantined section. Governor Dunne and state officials have worked in entire co-ordination and harmony from the onset of the epidemic he said and were agreed, as were authorities generally, that wholesale slaughter of animals afflicted or exposed is the only successful method of eradicating it.

Dr. V. A. Moore, for the last six years dean of the veterinary college of the Cornell University and Dr. C. J. Marshall, state veterinarian of Pennsylvania, talked about the disease.

Dr. S. E. Bennett of the United States Bureau of Animal Industry and in charge of the federal operations in Illinois said the government has six hundred men at work in this state together with 125 veterinarians and one hundred laborers.

He was convinced that slaughter is absolutely essential.

Dr. U. G. Houck, inspector of the United States department of animal industry recently has come from Michigan and Indiana where he engaged in successful wars against the scourge. He emphasized the opinion that it is a much greater economy to slaughter and pay for all infected and exposed animals in occasional years than to let the epidemic become fastened upon the country.

Dr. H. W. Mumford, professor in the bureau of animal industry of the University of Illinois advocated immediate and effective action.

Immediate legislative action will be considered.

In one of the resolutions adopted by the Board of Education at a meeting Monday night he stated that the controversy arose over the purchase through the J. F. Brennan Hardware Co. The Function of Commercial Clubs.

At a recent meeting of the Literary Union, W. E. Veitch spoke on the timely topic of the influence of commercial clubs on municipal growth and the part played by business men's associations and chambers of commerce in assisting city development. He spoke with reference to the situation in Jacksonville and mentioned also the work and methods of commercial organizations in other cities. A discussion as to methods of financing association activities he based upon an article in the American City by the commercial secretary of Little Rock, Arkansas, on "Financing Industrial Development by the Donation and Sale of Real Estate." The bonus has been tried and found wanting, it seems, and commercial associations are resorting to other methods in lieu of this practice so nearly outgrown. The Little Rock plan provides for the donation to the city of pieces of land which are sold by subscription within a short period of years. If the city grows and prospers these real estate values increase and the purchaser is rewarded accordingly. "Stating it in another way, the citizen has loaned the Chamber of Commerce some money without interest for a few years for the purpose of developing his city."

In Jacksonville, Mr. Veitch said, the first commercial organization was formed in 1870 with Cyrus Epler as president. This body was composed of young business men and was formed primarily for the purpose of creating sentiment toward the issuance of bonds for water-works improvement. Some form of commercial organization has since continued, and, although name and purpose have varied, the worth of such a body has been demonstrated and the place a live association of business men should occupy in the civic life has been in large measure defined. The best results are possible only when city officials and business men work to common ends. Regarding the usefulness of such organizations there can be no doubt. Particularly for young men is work together in commercial associations beneficial. There are plans to be worked out for civic betterment, projects to be carried through for the public weal. Every city has its problems, its ideals, its works to be done for the common good which subscribe for the time the individual's preference and add to the breadth and richness of the community life.

In every commercial organization there should be this well-defined purpose: to co-operate, and in co-operating to enlarge in each member a lively sense of civic responsibility, to inculcate in each a throb of personal interest, which, widening and growing, will look beyond the call of immediate self interest and teach him a higher duty. When duty begins interest grows and a bettered city will redound to the health and vigor of the commercial organization. No man can excel as a citizen without helping his fellows and no better opportunity for mutual help exists than in the commercial association whose purpose is progress, whose aim is the greatest good for the greatest number, and where the question, "Am I my brother's keeper" is no longer heard.

GOOD REPORTS GIVEN AT PARISH MEETING

Reports on finance and on the condition of the church organizations given Monday evening at the annual meeting of Trinity Episcopal parish, were uniformly good and there was every indication of a successful year beginning. The financial report was given by Walter Bellatti and the Sunday school report by the rector. The charity account of the rector, given by the Rev. H. R. Neely, showed a goodly amount of food and clothing disbursed to those in need. Mrs. J. A. Bellatti and Mrs. A. W. Cox told of the work of the guild and Miss Fannie Wakefield reported for the Woman's auxiliary, the church missionary organization.

Prof. Sherman Leavitt was selected vestryman to succeed Joseph L. Whitaker, who removed several months ago to St. Louis. The other vestrymen were re-elected. Committee chairmen appointed were A. J. Ward, property; Prof. J. G. Ames, music and W. T. Capps, finance. After the parish meeting the vestrymen organized, choosing H. M. Andre, rector's warden; A. J. Ward, parish warden; Walter Bellatti, treasurer and Charles Fawcett, clerk. William Robinson served as clerk of the meeting Monday evening.

GREAT RANCH ESTABLISHED NEAR ST. LOUIS

A tract of 37,000 acres at Rockspring, in Washington County, Mo., was purchased last week by the Missouri Cattle and Hog Ranch company, a new $2,000,000 corporation, according to Col. Sam Thornton, formerly engaged in the cattle business in Texas, but now of New York.

Col. Thornton, who is president of the company, said the tract would be devoted to the breeding and raising of cattle and hogs, to be sold on the St. Louis market. The land is between the Frisco and Iron Mountain railroads, sixty-five miles southwest of St. Louis.

He said in organizing the company he had obtained the co-operation of Texas and other southwestern cattlemen, and Eastern capitalists. The company was chartered by the State of Delaware, he said. The southwestern interests are represented on the Board of Directors by L. B. Jones, a merchant of White Hall, Ill., and owner of a stock farm in Macon County, Mo., and Silas Baker, cashier of the Bank of Richmond, at Richmond, in Washington County.

The decreasing supply of cattle and hogs, which has continued for four years, has reached the point of high prices where it is profitable for companies with large capital to open large ranches, Col. Thornton said.

A large company could introduce methods of economy which would enable it to place a steer or hog on the market at less cost than would be possible to the owner of a small farm.

CASE IS CONTINUED.

The case of the City of Jacksonville vs. the LeCrosse Lumber Co., which was brought up for hearing Tuesday before Squire Dyer, was continued ten days and will be heard Jan. 29th. This case is brought by Levi James as the complaining witness. James asserts that lumber piled in South Sandy street, just west of the lumber yard, would endanger his residence across the street, should the lumber yard take fire and that it is an obstruction in a public highway.

BOYS AND GIRLS ADD VOICE TO STATE TEMPERANCE WORK

Anti-saloon League Petitions Passed to Young People Between 13 and 20—This and Other Sunday School Matters Considered by Board.

Petitions will be sent within a few days to each of the Sunday school superintendents of Morgan county which young people will sign in the interests of the anti-saloon and temperance legislation now before the Illinois assembly. The petitions urge against the repeal of the township option law and the woman suffrage law and speak in favor of the county option and other bills tending to mitigate the saloon problem.

Approval of this plan and arrangement for Sunday school conventions and institutes throughout the county formed the chief business of the executive committee of the Morgan County Sunday School association in session Tuesday forenoon in the office of Clarence L. DePew. Mr. DePew and W. H. Crum are on the committee which will have the arrangement of the precinct institute series, to be held on week days during the spring months. The president and secretary were appointed to look after the convention program which will be held in the respective precincts on Sundays during the first part of summer. The committee ratified the action of the Woodson convention last summer asking that Sunday schools make a contribution of five cents per member to organize Sunday school work through the county association. There were present at the meeting, C. L. DePew, A. C. Rice, Carl H. Weber, the treasurer, and Miss Ethel Paek, secretary of the association, Jacksonville; J. K. Cunningham, Murrayville; Arthur Swain, Sinclair; Wilbur Adams, Chapin; and W. E. Keenan, Alexander. The superintendents will be sent instructions relative to the petitions as follows:

"A live teen age boy and an energetic teen age girl should be selected to secure signers in the Sunday school, young people's society and the public school. The age must be placed opposite the name and no one below the age of thirteen or above the age of twenty should sign."

"The pastor should urge from the pulpit all young people to sign. The superintendent should give strong announcements from the platform and someone should urge it strongly in young people's meeting. After all the signatures of the young people have been secured, make a canvass of the community, especially in the public schools for signers. It will be well for the girls' committee to take the petition for a week and get as many girls as possible to sign, then give it to the boys' committee for a week and see who can get the largest vote recorded." It is suggested that the superintendents make the work of the two committees competitive and that they enroll the pupils of their Sunday schools on the flag pledge charts. It is urged that the canvass be made as full as possible, that the petitions be signed by the county secretary and that the petitions be returned by Feb. 1. "The Anti-saloon League is counting largely on this petition for the securing of temperance legislation. We want 250,000 signers."

MAKES PROTEST.

Editor Journal:—After the demonstration of Sunday afternoon at Northminster church, and the stir for money, it behooves the writer to ask, what are the churches for? Houses of Divine worship, or places of amusement, theatrical performances, etc?

Applause and clapping of hands in the House of God is entirely out of place, and mars the solemnity of the Sanctuary. Jno. 2:16, Matt. 6:24.

Respectfully, Adele M. Armstrong.

After the game the winners treated the losers to a lunch at Batz' cafe. The bank team has challenged the winning rollers to a return match next Tuesday night.

WELLS CONFESSES GUILT.

Chief of Police Davis returned from Springfield Tuesday afternoon bringing with him James Wells, the colored man who confessed to the Springfield police that he had broken into the window of the John Dunn store on South Mauvaisterre street in this city and taken a number of watches. All of the watches except one were recovered. Wells, who says his home is in Indianapolis, admits the theft of the watches, and says that he was under the influence of morphine when he committed the act. He is undoubtedly addicted to the use of this drug and gets into a pitiable condition of nervousness when he is kept from it long.

John Doe alias James Wells charged with breaking into the store of John Dunn was brought into court, before Squire Dyer, waived examination and in default of giving bond in the sum of $300 for his appearance at the May term of the circuit court was committed to the Morgan county jail. Wells asserts he came here from Minneapolis. According to Dunn the goods stolen amounted to about $18.

LOTS OF SHOES.

It is estimated that the armies of Europe at the present time use six million pairs of shoes a month which leads one to wonder if that will not make a scarcity in the leather market. Of course the men at war wear out a good many more shoes than they would wear if at home. Then too, for our calfskin foot wear during the last fiscal year 24,000,000 nides were imported from Russia, Germany, Belgium and France.

The Theft of the Crown Jewels

The Million Dollar Jewel Production in Two Acts

Which of you could possibly resist the desire to see Miss Joyce wearing a cool million dollars' worth of jewels, and a three thousand-dollar gown, made by "Lucille" (Lady Duff Gordon)? This fortune is shown in the course of this great romance.

The Jewels worn by Miss Joyce in this production are valued at $1,000,000 and were especially loaned to Kalem by Lebolt & Company, of Fifth Avenue, New York City. Miss Joyce's gown was designed by "Lucille" (Lady Duff Gordon), the famous Modiste, whose creations are worn by members of ultra-fashionable society. The gown cost $3,000. Miss Joyce is the only person living who has actually worn at one time the tremendous fortune represented in this picture.

"A PAIR OF SIXES" COMING.

"A Pair of Sixes" which is acclaimed by all of the New York, Chicago and Boston critics as "the funniest farce in the world", will be presented at the Grand next Monday, Jan. 25th.

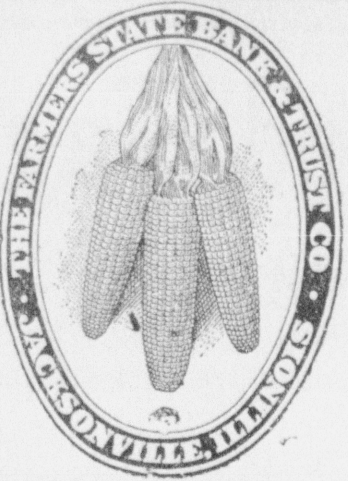

The play is a farce in three acts by Edward Peple, author of "The Prince Chap" and "The Littlest Rebel". The story concerns the quarrel of two young men, proprietors of the Eureka Digestive Pill Company, each of whom claims the credit for the success of the business. Their lawyer, unable to assist them to an amicable settlement, suggests a hand of poker to decide which shall conduct the business unmolested by the other. A pair of sixes is the winning hand. Under the agreement, the loser becomes involved in a series of complications, from which he ultimately is rescued by a scheme of his sweetheart.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR MRS. G. DOUGLAS ROBERTS

Large Number Pays Last Tribute of Respect to Resident of Franklin Community.

Impressive funeral services were conducted Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock for the late Mrs. G. Douglas Roberts from the M. F. church in Franklin, in charge of the pastor, Rev. E. S. Vorbeck, assisted by Rev. John Kettle. There was a large gathering of friends on account of the wide acquaintance of the deceased.

Music was furnished by the church choir and Miss Ima Berryman of this city sang a solo, "Some day thou shalt be at Rest," with Miss Edith Hillerby, also of Jacksonville as accompanist.

There were many beautiful flowers and these were cared for by Misses Rhoda Scott, Alice Criswell, Maud Criswell and Kamille Wright. Rev. Mr. Vorbeck preached from the text John 14:33, "These things I have spoken unto you that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulations; but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world." The minister paid a splendid tribute to the life and worth of Mrs. Roberts as a citizen, neighbor and friend.

The "Auld Lang Syne Club," composed of twelve school girls, to which Mrs. Roberts belonged, acted as honorary bearers. Interment was made in the Franklin cemetery and the active bearers were Fred Roberts, Hal Roberts, Morris Roberts, Donald Roberts, Marvin Roberts and Elmer Roberts.

OPEN AIR SCHOOL PROGRESS.

With the beginning of its second week, the open air school took on a much more settled air of work than was apparent the first few days and all the pupils have seemingly come to the realization that even an open air school is real school after all and that the same program of study as in the grades must be carried out. Along with Miss Hammond's report of the school work done, comes from Miss Olmsted the information that the supply of fruits, jellies, etc., is running low and that unless some person generously inclined appears, the children will be bereft of the "appetizer" for their solid meal at mid-day.

COURT APPOINTS ATTORNEY AS SOLE RECEIVER FOR RUMLEY CO

Bond is Fixed at $50,000 and Receiver is Ordered to Continue Operation of Concern Until Further Orders.

Indianapolis, Jan. 19.—The appointment of Finley P. Mount, an Indianapolis attorney, as sole receiver for the M. Rumley company, a $30,000,000 agricultural machinery manufacturing concern, by Judge A. B. Anderson in the United States district court here this afternoon was over the recommendations of all the creditors who asked that Clarence S. Funk of Chicago, president of the company, and Stephen B. Fleming of Fort Wayne, Ind., be named joint receivers.

"The representatives of all the creditors, including the banks, note holders and stockholders," reads a statement issued by counsel for the Bankers Trust company of New York, trustee for the note holders and for the note holders committee, were unanimous in requesting the appointment of Mr. Funk and Mr. Fleming but the court, following its custom in such matters, declined to appoint Mr. Funk as he is a non-resident of the state and appointed as sole receiver Mr. Mount.

"Mr. Mount bears an excellent reputation and has had experience in receivership work."
 The abnormal financial conditions, resulting from the European war and the refusal of the holders of $1,300,000 of its debenture notes to grant an extension of the time are held responsible for the receivership in a statement issued by Mr. Funk today.

CLOVER LEAF STOCKHOLDERS HOLD ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING

Reports are Heard From the Various Officers and Election Held—To Open Field in Kansas.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Clover Leaf Casualty company was held Tuesday in the offices of the company on East State street. There was a good representation of the stock holders present, including several from out of the city. Reports were heard from the various officers and show that there had almost been a gain of one half in the number of policies written during the year just closed. In 1913 8,700 policies were issued and in 1914, 15,100. The company has set 25,000 as the mark for 1915.

The company expects to begin operations in Kansas the first of next month with H. G. Rockwood as state manager. Mr. Rockwood will continue to hold his present similar position in Missouri. A number of Illinois district managers will assist in the work of organizing the state of Kansas.

The three directors elected were: W. C. Bradish, L. H. Clampt and C. Y. Rowe.

The following officers were re-elected:

President—F. H. Rowe.
 Vice president—W. C. Bradish.
 Secretary—Richard Y. Rowe.

HIGH QUALITY BIRDS MARK POULTRY ASSOCIATION ENTRIES

Large Number of Entries From Exhibitors From Away—Work of Judging, Begun Tuesday Forenoon, Complete by Thursday.

With the first day's judging complete and a gratifying number of high class birds entered in the competition, the annual show of the Morgan County Poultry association is in full swing. H. C. Wilbite of Greenview, a well known fancier who has had birds at shows in many parts of the county, has in the show a number of fowls just brought from a show at Excelsior Springs, Mo. Among other towns represented are Havana, Springfield, Carrollton, White Hall and Beardstown. Attendance has been fair and with the placing of the awards, a considerable increase is looked for. The hoof and mouth disease epidemic and other causes have tended to discourage shows and fairs of all kinds of late, and the interest shown in the 1915 show exceeds considerably the expectations of the association members.

Although in number of birds exhibited, hardly as large as some years in the past, the show is marked for quality, there being entered birds valued from $75 to $100. I. A. Angle of Forrest City, one of the judges, has already placed the ribbons on 150 entries. The judging will continue throughout the day and will be completed at least by tomorrow noon. Varieties are well represented and besides all manner of standard kinds, there are in the show, turkeys, ducks, waterfowl, and the fancy varieties of chickens.

DAMON AND PYTHIAS

The World's Greatest Story of Universal Friendship

Endorsed by Pythian Lodges Everywhere.

At Luttrell's Majestic Theatre Today and Tomorrow

Four hundred years before the dawn of the Christian era, the drama of Damon and Pythias was enacted and has lived and grown down through all the ages until it is the foremost theme in the world today upon which universal peace may be founded. It is this sublime story that is unfolded in the absorbing and soulful photo drama of Damon and Pythias.

Spectacular, stirring, gripping are its scenes; laid in Greece in the pomp and glory of her greatest day, with its colossal groupings, classic dances, games, the thrill of chariot race, battles upon sea and land, cities built and cities destroyed, and through all this, with a dramatic fire and touch of sentiment runs the story of human friendship and its lesson of man's humanity to man. Never before in the history of pictured plays have scenes of such magnificence and grandeur met the camera.

Because of its appealing story, its deep and inspiring love interest, its nearness to all that is human, its educational and uplifting influences, it is a picture all will want to see. It is the pictured presentation of a story of friendship that has lived through all the ages—it is a photo play that will never die.

It is the first time such a picture has been shown outside the big cities. It will be shown in Jacksonville before it appears in St. Louis. The prices charged in Chicago and New York were from 25c to $1.00, but Manager Luttrell has secured the play so that he can show it at 10c. First show begins this p. m. at 1:45. First night show at 6:45.

For, as a result of the local campaign, the Newark deaths of infants fell to 93 in each 1,000 births. Such a reduction throughout the state it was asserted would have saved 1,270 babies in the last year. Specialists in the field of hygiene are attending the convention. Among the speakers expected is Miss Julia C. Lathrop of the National Children's Bureau. Other speakers are Dr. S. Josephine Baker and Dr. Henry L. K. Shaw of New York.

A BEAUTIFUL PIECE OF WORK.

In a show window at Andre & Andre's store is a center piece deftly wrought by the venerable Mrs. John C. Sargent of the west part of the county. Though 87 years of age the old lady decided she could learn to crochet just as well as some of her granddaughters and asked to be taught. The young lady applied to expressed her doubts regarding grandma's ability to learn the intricacies of the work but grandma didn't see it at all in that light and insisted on the lessons which were given and the result may be seen as stated.

The work is a center piece, circular with linen center and surrounded by highly ornamental crocheting showing wonderful skill for any lady and all the more for the one who did it under such circumstances.

STATE WIDE PROHIBITION PARAMOUNT ISSUE IN IOWA

"Dry" Leaders Are Displeased With Senate Committees on Constitutional Amendments and Suppression of Intemperance.

Des Moines, Iowa, Jan. 19.—The state-wide prohibition question became a paramount issue before the thirty-sixth general assembly of Iowa tonight as the result of committee appointments in the senate and house today.

"Dry" leaders expressed themselves as displeased with the senate committee on constitutional amendments and suppression of intemperance, announced by Lieut. Governor Harding. A. U. Coates, secretary of the Iowa constitutional prohibition amendment association, declared the senate were only four out of the twelve men on each of the senate committees who can be identified as "dry."

Early in the day it had been announced that the temperance forces had won a victory in the committee appointments but the announcement was revised after a canvass of the names selected.

"Dry" leaders said they would force issues through these committees, if possible, and expected assistance from the rules committees. It was claimed that in the membership of both houses, the "drys" had a sufficient number of votes to defeat any bill which might be proposed by the liquor forces.

No sessions of the house or senate were held this afternoon, the time being taken up in the organization of the committees named this morning.

DEMOCRATS RESUME ACTIVITY ON RURAL CREDIT LEGISLATION

Determine to Get a Measure Before the Senate as Soon as Possible—Committee Will Meet Today.

Washington, Jan. 19.—Although there may be no opportunity to enact legislation for the improvement of rural credits by the time congress adjourns March 4th, next, Democrats of the senate resumed activity today on this subject with a view to reporting a bill in the near future. In accordance with action of the Democratic caucus Monday night in adopting a resolution declaring it the sense of the senate demands that a rural credits system bill be pressed at the earliest practicable date, a meeting of the banking and currency committee was called today by Chairman Owen. It was determined to get a measure before the senate as soon as possible and the committee will meet tomorrow to take up particularly the bill known in the senate as the Hollis bill, which was framed by the joint banking and currency sub-committee of the senate and house last summer.

Some leading Democratic senators insisted today that an extra session of congress could not be avoided. Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia openly declared that an extra session in the spring or summer was "absolutely certain."

Believing this to be the case, some of the Democrats argue that there is no necessity for immediate action on appropriation bills and are urging that rural credits legislation be taken up before March 4th. This plan will be urged at a party caucus in the near future.

President Wilson suggested in his annual message that there would not be time for rural credits legislation at this session and administration leaders do not interpret the action of the caucus as demanding immediate action. The president told callers today that it was his understanding that the senate Democrats did not mean to infer that a rural credits bill should be rushed through at this time.

TERRE HAUTE OWNERS APPLY FOR THREE EYE FRANCHISES.

May Result in Re-Organization of Two Class B. Leagues—Must Get Consent of Central League.

Terre Haute, Ind., Jan. 19.—Reorganization of two class B. leagues may be the result of the application today of owners of the Terre Haute franchise in the Central League for a franchise in the Three Eye League. President Al Tearney of the Three Eye said tonight that the application of Terre Haute will be passed on within two weeks. However, Terre Haute is Central League territory and cannot be invaded by the Three Eye without consent of the Central League.

In applying for a Three Eye franchise, Webb Beggs, president of the company controlling the local company, says the present league has been unsatisfactory. Mr. Tearney said the Three Eye would be an eight club circuit if Terre Haute is awarded a franchise and that some changes may be necessary in the make-up of the association.

Will Not Surrender Franchise.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Jan. 19.—"The Central League will certainly not surrender the Terre Haute franchise to the Three Eye league," said President Louis Helbroner of the former organization tonight. "We cannot give up Terre Haute of course for that would break up the league."

WILL TRY ARCHITECT FOR OCEAN MURDER

Defense of George Perkins Who Killed Newspaper Man Will Be Insanity.

Charleston, S. C., Jan. 19.—The postponed trial of George Bachelard Perkins, wealthy Boston architect, for the murder of F. W. R. Hinman, manager of a Florida newspaper, is set for today in the United States District Court. It is believed by the Boston friends of Perkins that his defense will be insanity. When Perkins was arraigned shortly after the murder, his condition was such that Judge Smith postponed the trial.

Perkins is also under indictment for assault and battery with intent to kill Captain A. D. Ingram of the steamship Mohawk and B. H. Wright of Utica, N. Y., a fellow passenger.

The prominence of Perkins and his family in Boston added to the sensation when, on arrival of the Mohawk here on November 13th, Perkins was taken in irons from the ship, on which he had gone amuck two days previously. Hinman, who was a passenger, was instantly killed, and Wright and Capt. Ingram were seriously wounded. Perkins is one of Boston's wealthiest architects, and widely known as a designer of the ceilings in the Congressional library in Washington and the New York public library.

Perkins, who boarded the Mohawk in New York, was turned over to the federal authorities immediately on the arrival of the Mohawk at Charleston, and was arraigned for murder. Evidence was introduced at that time to show that Perkins was not mentally responsible for his acts.

The murder was one of the most blood-curdling acts in the annals of the coastwise ships. According to those who were aboard the Mohawk, Perkins appeared like a madman, clad in his pajamas, in the companionway where Hinman and his wife, with Capt. Ingram and Wright were talking. The intruder was a picture of terror, and the four instinctively shrank from him. His eyes bulged with frenzy, his mouth was twitching convulsively, and he was swinging his arms wildly. Captain Ingram caught Perkins by the arm, and told him he must not leave his state room in pajamas.

The enraged man then showed a revolver, and began shooting. The first two bullets took effect on Hinman. They entered his abdomen and resulted in his death. Perkins turned the gun on Wright and felled him. Another bullet sped toward Mrs. Hinman who was kneeling beside her husband, but it went wild. The fifth shot was for Captain Ingram, and it took effect. Meantime the firing had aroused the passengers and crew, and a dozen men rushed on Perkins, who held the gun to his head. He pulled the trigger, but the chambers were empty, and he was taken below and ironed.

Medical aid was summoned by wireless, and the U. S. Torpedo Boat Destroyer rushed to meet the Mohawk. Aid arrived too late to save Hinman. On arrival of the vessel here Capt. Ingram and Wright were rushed to the hospital.

N. K. Wentworth, who occupied a stateroom with Perkins, testified that Perkins acted strangely soon after boarding the Mohawk, and that he had seen him take some drug. Perkins said it was for a headache, and Wentworth thought nothing of it until after the shooting.

The shooting created a sensation in Boston, where Perkins is prominent. No reason could be assigned for his rash act except that he had gone insane or had been drugged. He left Boston to go to Florida on a fishing trip, and his relatives noticed nothing unusual about him, they say.

Perkins is a graduate of the Mass. Institute of Technology, and early gained fame as a designer of unusual merit. His works are admired by thousands. He spent much of his time in travel. Just before his fatal trip on the Mohawk he returned from Europe where he travelled with his sister and her husband. Perkins is 41 years old and unmarried.

James K. Cunningham of Murrayville visited the city yesterday.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF
Girls! Try It! Your Hair Gets Soft, Fluffy and Luxuriant At Once.

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

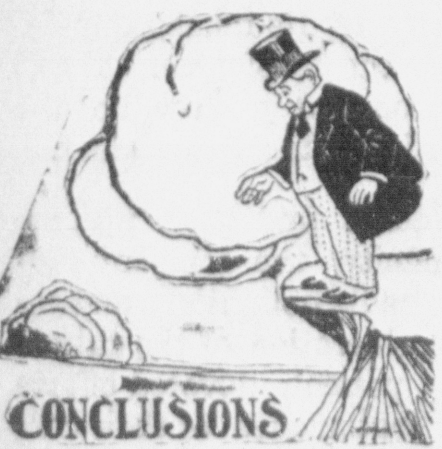

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots fash, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now?—Advertisement.

Christmas Savings Club

Which has been forming since December 21, 1914, at

The Ayers National Bank

IS STILL OPEN FOR YOU TO JOIN

AND INTEREST ON YOUR DEPOSITS WILL ACCRUE FROM DATE CLUB STARTED.

The Dimes, Nickels and Pennies you allow to slip through your fingers for things of little use to you will keep up your payments. Do not postpone joining for soon it will be too late.

When we opened our new Bank Building two years ago, we started our first Club and in December of that year paid about Seven Thousand Dollars.

One year ago, our second Club was started, and the week before Christmas we paid out to our Club members nearly Twenty-five Thousand Dollars.

This Money Went Into the Channels of Trade

The members had funds for their Christmas shopping and merchants were benefitted because the members had money to spend. Those who have tried it, like it, and they say they are going to join again.

You ask them what they think of it and what they say is the strongest proof of its advantages we can offer you.

It ought to amount to Fifty Thousand Dollars this year, and we believe it will. Just think what that will mean to you Christmas week of this year. Call and let Mr. J. J. Kelly, our Savings Teller, explain the plan to you.

This great money-saving event has been in progress ten days, with only five more to go. While hundreds have already taken advantage of the wonderful money-saving values, I am still quite a way from $1,500 I must have by Saturday night, Jan. 16th, to satisfy my creditors. CATTLE FEEDERS

Woods Improved Grain Softener

Pat. Applied for 100 bu. size.

The Woods Improved Grain Softener will add 100 per cent to the value of No. 2 corn for feeding cattle. It will add 50 per cent to feed for hogs and horses, and supplies the very feed to mix with silage for milk cows. If any one wishes these statements proven, I will furnish them a plant on six months trial, and if it proves my claims they help me sell my plants to their neighbors. If it fails I will refund all money paid to me for said plant. All plants are sold at $8.00 per bu., cob measure, and guaranteed to do all I claim if used according to my directions.

We find by putting soda in the corn when cooking it helps make the corn more digestible enough to pay for the soda, and keeps the hogs in a healthy condition. We also make all the charcoal we need by closing the draft so it can not get air, when we have a bed of live coals.

Yours for producing more beef and pork.

KANSAS CITY MARKETS.

Kansas City Stock Yards, Jan.
18, 1915.—Unusually heavy shipments of stockers and feeders were made last week, 19,099 cattle, or 60 per cent of the receipts going out. Prices were firm first of the week, but the greater part of these cattle went out Tuesday and thereafter, at 10 to 25c lower prices.
Good native feeders sold at $7.45 to $7.50, choice feeders up to $7.75.
Choice stockers, $7 to $7.25; good thrifty stockers $6.50 to $6.75, plain ones $6 to $6.25. A good demand developed for breeding stock, although prices were on a lower level, choice young springer cows selling at $5.00 to $5.85, choice two year old springer heifers $5.85 to $6.15, choice light yearling heifers around $6.50, heifer calves of best grade $7.35, steer calves $7.50, well bred cattle and feeding bulls $5.50 to $5-90. Receipts of cattle here today are 14,000 head, market steady to 15c higher on killing grades, steers to 10c lower on stockers and feeders. As was the case a week ago, a large share of the receipts today is feeding and stock grades of cattle. It is commonly known that Illinois and Iowa have not shipped in any cattle to speak of since the first of November, and these states have made heavy shipments of half fat stuff to market in recent weeks, conditions that made it appear logical to conclude that this is a good time to pick up choice fleshy feeders at present rates, and finish them for the spring market. It even looks like a good proposition to buy stock cattle or calves and hold for 40 or 60 days, and sell to parties who have grass. Of the stocker and feeder shipments last week, 12,346 cattle went to Kansas, 3,848 to Missouri, 1,903 to Oklahoma, balance scattering, including a few to Iowa,
Illinois and Indiana.

WORLD'S MARKET NEWS

FORMER FAVORITES ON 'CHANGE REGAIN THEIR LEADERSHIP

Transactions in Securities are Larger and Broader Than at Any Session Since Trading in the Entire List Was Resumed.

New York, Jan. 19.—Transactions in securities on the stock exchange today were larger and broader than in any session since December 15th, last, when trading in the entire list was resumed. With few important exceptions, the average of today's prices was on a level with the high quotations then recorded and 5 to 10 points above the low range which marked the subsequent decline.
The significant feature of the movement was the fact that speculators so long dominant were relatively ignored, while former favorites like United States Steel, Amalgamated Copper, Reading and the Pacific regained their won leadership.
At all low priced issues Missouri Pacific occupied a commanding position, adding to its recent recovery on favorable re-organization rumors. Canadian Pacific and affiliated lines were again active and strong while the coals, grangers, Trans-Continental and southern roads gained from 1 to 5 points.
United States Steel was the more active of the industrials but its importance was temporarily eclipsed by Bethlehem Steel whose directors fulfilled expectations by restoring the preferred stock to the full seven per cent rate, those shares later selling at the best price in over eight years. Advances of two to four points were quite general in the many miscellaneous issues including tobacco, while copper more than retained recent gains.

Better weather was reported to be prevailing in Argentina and therefore liberal new estimates of the amount of the Argentine exportable surplus.
Somewhat increased receipts of wheat, especially at Minneapolis and Duluth tended to discourage the bulls right at the outset. Then too, snow falls were benefiting the domestic winter crop and there was no chance the bears overlooked that might continue to draw attention to government inquiries and to at least the possibility of an embargo act.
Lessening of export sales acted as a handicap on corn and also did the break in the wheat market. Liverpool prices were unresponsive to yesterday's advance here. Moreover, big receipts added to the huge domestic stocks. Nevertheless all attempts to stampede holders were stubbornly contested. In the oats crowd, heavy selling by one of the largest houses continued to be the main feature.

WOMAN WOULD NOT GIVE UP

Though Sick and Suffering; At Last Found Help in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Richmond, Pa. — "When I started taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was in a dreadfully rundown state of health, had internal troubles, and was so extremely nervous and prostrated that if I had given in to my feelings I would have been in bed. As it was I had hardly strength at times to be on my feet and what I did do was by a great effort. I could not sleep at night and of course felt very bad in the morning, and had a steady headache.

"After taking the second bottle I noticed that the headache was not so bad, I rested better, and my nerves were stronger. I continued its use until it made a new woman of me, and now I can hardly realize that I am able to do so much as I do. Whenever I know any woman in need of a good medicine I highly praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound." — Mrs. FRANK CLARK, 3146 N. Tulip St., Richmond, Pa.

Try This If You
Have Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This dissolves it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and itching of the scalp will stop instantly and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

LEGUME CROPS THEME AT FARMERS CLUB

A. M. MASTERS GAVE REASONS FOR USE OF SWEET CLOVER.

Well Known Farmers Freely Told of Experiences With Alfalfa and Clover Crops—Valuable Suggestions Were Made—Methods for Oat Planting Will be Considered at Next Meeting.

The meeting of the Morgan County Farmers' club held Tuesday afternoon in the county court room was largely attended, notwithstanding the unfavorable condition of the weather. Charles S. Black presided and called upon the various speakers who had been announced. The general subject was legume crops and sweet clover received the largest amount of attention, with alfalfa second and red clover third. A. M. Masters talked upon sweet clover, its advantages and the method of culture and told of his observations and experiences in visiting the Loveland farm in Iowa and the Graham farm near Rochelle, Ill., where special attention is paid to the growing of sweet clover. A. L. French gave his experience with alfalfa, as did G. A. Leach, D. E. Kennedy, Harold Joy, Stansfield Baldwin, C. A. Rowe and Bert Way. Mr. Rowe also read an article from the Prairie Farmer giving a detailed account of the activities of the farm bureau in Livingston county during the past year, emphasizing particularly the savings which have resulted from co-operative work.

By a vote of those present it was decided to hold the next meeting of the club on the second Tuesday in February when the question of planting oats will be discussed. The purpose at each meeting is to have some subject which is timely, in order that there may be suggestions about work which farmers are ready to undertake. In addition to the speakers mentioned there were a number of farmers who asked questions or who offered suggestions called forth by the remarks of the speakers.

First in the County.
Mr. Masters in his opening remarks said that thirty years ago John Tendick of Murrayville purchased for Col. Camm, and Uncle Billy Wells, a half bushel of sweet clover seed which they planted in order to secure desirable blossoms for bees. The neighbors protested about the spread of this weed, but nevertheless these two men were pioneers in introducing the crop which has since proved very valuable as a soil builder. The speaker said that during the last two years he has spent $600 in planting clover from which he had practically nothing to show. He said that one of the troubles with sowing red clover is the plan which is usually followed of cutting off the clover and thus losing about two-thirds of the fertility which would result if the whole was plowed under. It has been demonstrated, he declared, that sweet clover is a biennial, prolific crop, that it will furnish splendid pasture the first year, and when it goes to seed the second year will produce anywhere from four to fifteen bushels per acre. The demand is such that an excellent price can be secured for the seed. He maintained that an excellent manner of crop rotation is now acknowledged to be two years of sweet clover and two years of corn.

Sweet Clover Specialists.
Mr. Masters then related briefly what he, P. E. Farrell and J. W. Hubble had seen on their trip of sweet clover investigation. On the Coverdale farm they found evidences of a great corn crop, and the 80 head of cattle and 300 head of hogs which were in splendid condition gave proof of the value of sweet clover as a feed. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coverdale said that the cattle had never been fed in as good condition as corn fed stock. Some corn had been fed to the hogs. At Richelle, S. P. Graham has a farm of a thousand acres and devotes much of it to sweet clover. Mr. Graham told of cattle that he had fattened on sweet clover and shipped to Swift & Co., in Chicago and the records showed that they dressed out just three points below corn fed cattle. Mr. Graham believes that sweet clover has some advantages over alfalfa, as it is not so difficult to grow and as a feed it will fatten and yet will not bloat. He is such a strong advocate of sweet clover that he offered to make a wager that in a period of six months that a bunch of cattle placed in a 40-acre field of sweet clover would show a larger gain than the same number placed on a 40-acre alfalfa field. Mr. Masters then in a very convincing way summed up the evidence in favor of sweet clover given by such authorities as Prof. Holden, farm adviser for the International Harvester company; E. G. Fennup, a Garden City, Kansas, banker who has grown as much as three thousand acres with great success; and a number of other well known soil experts.

Experiences Related.
A. L. French then told of his experiences with alfalfa, which have not been very successful. He thoroughly believes in the crop and now after several attempts has a field with a fair stand. He advocates the use of a drill in sowing alfalfa, as well as other grain, from the standpoint of economy, as a given amount of seed will in this way go much further.

G. A. Leach told of his experiences with alfalfa which have been very satisfactory. He believes in planting in August, and although he has not used limestone, the results have shown that the crop will pay well.

D. E. Kennedy, who is also a successful grower of alfalfa, said that he had found it best to plant in the spring, and told of a field of ten acres which he planted on the 17th of March, using oats as a nurse crop. He planted just a bushel of oats to the acre and they thrived out 55 bushels to the acre, and the stand of alfalfa was excellent. Subsequently he used the field to pasture hogs. His experience with sweet clover had been just as satisfactory and he found that it grows very rapidly and that hogs preferred it to red clover.

Harold Joy told of a small field of alfalfa which he planted in the fall on a field which had grown oats. He inoculated the soil and drilled in the seed, using great care in the preparation of the seed bed, and this past season the field produced five tons to the acre. Mr. Joy in his remarks also called attention to the state corn show which is to take place in Decatur the coming week.

Stansfield Baldwin's experiences in raising alfalfa date back probably further than those of anyone else in Morgan county. He became familiar with alfalfa eighteen or twenty years ago when traveling in the west, and after his return planted a field. The spring proved to be wet and the crop did not do well. The same thing happened for another year or two, but he did not despair, and two years ago again planted an 8 acre tract with oats as a nurse crop. Through the use of manure from a livery stable here he unintentionally planted a lot of rye and timothy seed and in some way wild lettuce also gained a foothold, with the result that when he cut the alfalfa the crop was quite a mixture. He baled it all together and with the exception of the lettuce it proved quite a satisfactory feed. By clipping the field late in the season and using a harrow, he now has it cleaned in such a way that he thinks there will be no trouble the coming season in the other grasses interfering with the alfalfa.

C. A. Rowe said that in his experience with alfalfa he had found that a harrow with the teeth reversed was of quite a large advantage in killing out the blue grass. He differed with Mr. Leach, who had used manure largely on alfalfa, on the theory that this rather should have been put on the poor land and that alfalfa can secure the ingredients that it needs from the air. Then Mr. Rowe read an article from the Prairie Farmer telling the experiences of the farm expert in Livingston county and what the farm bureau has accomplished. Bert Way told of sowing two pounds to the acre of alfalfa with clover on oats, and said that the alfalfa got a good start and that the second year there was a sufficient growth to make not only good pasture but to be harvested. There was some further discussion, and after those present had agreed upon the next meeting for the second week in February, adjournment was taken.

Mr. Masters during his remarks read statements by Mr. Graham of Rochelle and Mr. Fennup of Garden City, Kansas.

Mr. Graham's Sweet Clover Reasons.
Mr. Graham's own account of his sweet clover crops is as follows:

Fully realizing that the growing of clover as a legume crop is very necessary in order to keep up the fertility of the soil, I began some years ago using common red clover. I found it to be very unsatisfactory, for too often I did not secure a good stand and too frequently when I did get a good stand in the spring it would kill out after the small grain was cut. I then tried Mammoth clover, with somewhat better results, but not entirely satisfactory, for I too frequently found the same conditions to exist in August, following the spring seeding. I did, however, like the Mammoth better because of its large growth. This led me to consider the use of sweet clover and about six years ago I began raising it. I have been most agreeably surprised as to how many uses this plant can be put to, to entire satisfaction. I can say today, without hesitation, that sweet clover is going to revolutionize farming in every particular.

I started to raise it for fertilizing purposes only, but by accident I found it to be of great feeding value and today I consider it in many ways greater feed than alfalfa. I believe it is an acknowledged fact that as a fertilizer it cannot be equaled, and I feel perfectly safe in saying that as feed it cannot be overrated. I have used it as hay, pasture and silage with the most satisfactory results. I sow it with oats or other small grain in the spring and with a proper lime content and bacteria condition it is not an uncommon thing to have from 15 inches to 24 inches growth by the middle of September that fall.

I have had cattle make a gain of three pounds a day on such fall pasture.

By sowing it in all of one's small grain crop it affords one hay, pasture and ensilage in the fall from the spring's seeding. I have harvested such a crop this fall, having had plenty of pasture since threshing time, have filled two barns with hay and put up 70 tons of ensilage. All this being second crop material. From this treatment there is no danger of its killing out during the winter, but, on the other hand, I am assured of two crops next year, a hay or pasture crop until the 5th of June, and then a seed crop in September. I will have about 200 acres of such crops next year.

I would suggest 20 pounds of hulled seed to the acre. Do not sow in loose soil, be sure land is not acid, and inoculate seed if necessary. If soil conditions are right, it is not necessary to lessen your seeding of oats, barley or spring wheat. There is no danger of its injuring your nurse crop. It requires some attention to cure it for hay; it can be cut and put into a silo very green and even wet. Judgment must be used in deciding when to cut for seed, cut with a harrow, shock it up, and when dry enough take the seed by either a threshing machine or a large huller.

By the application of 1,000 pounds of phosphate to the acre after the seed crop, I expect in a very few years to double the yield of corn, oats and wheat.

Mr. Fennup's Experiences Told.

About eight years ago I started to feed this sweet clover, the white blooming (Melilotus alba) variety, which is considered the best, and from watching my stock feeding on it I began to believe that they did better on sweet clover hay than most any other roughness, so I commenced to spread the fields and got to sowing it until now I have about 3,000 acres. This, too, on good alfalfa land when clover seed is high and alfalfa seed is cheap.

Consequently I must deem it of some value as compared to alfalfa and also must have some reasons for sowing sweet clover. Here are my reasons:

Sweet clover has proven to be as good feed for all kinds of stock as alfalfa.

It makes a better early pasture, will not bloat stock and is easier grown.

It grows without much preparation of the ground and will grow on ground too poor for any other crop and is about the best fertilizer for worn-out soil of any of the clovers.

Last year, from 120 acres of ground, I got a little over 900 bushels of seed, which sold for $10 to $15 per bushel.

Last year I sold a carload to one seed house—the first carload lot known to have been sold by any one grower of sweet clover.

This year I harvested about 600 bushels of seed and it is selling at $15 per bushel for the hulled, cleaned seed.

I attribute the reason for sweet clover seed being so high and alfalfa seed so cheap to be because alfalfa will grow in only a few states profitably, while sweet clover will grow in nearly every state in the Union, if not in every one. It produces the best blossom for bees of any of the clovers.

It is a help to orchards, keeping down weeds, making hay as well as fertilizing the land.

I cut my first crop for hay the latter part of May. The last of August the seed is ripe, then another short hay crop. You can allow the first crop to go for seed, but the stems get pretty thick and tall, so that it is harder to handle. It is a biennial legume plant, so that the first year it does not go to seed, but will seed the next year. Enough seed falls off every fall to reseed the ground, so that it is a continuous crop similar to alfalfa.

I thresh with a regular grain separator, either out of the stack or shocks.

I think ten pounds of seed per acre is sufficient to grow in this section.

I prefer to sow in the fall and winter. The seed is of a hard nature and seems to like some freezing weather. A good many have excellent success by sowing in February, March, April, May and June.

I think a good deal depends on the season; in fact, almost all. Prepare land about as for alfalfa. I have had good success, however, by sowing right on the sod and then harrowing or disking.

The yield is about the same as alfalfa, but it makes a larger tonnage than alfalfa under similar conditions.

It seems to stand all kinds of pasturing both in the spring and fall.

I know of some fields that are pastured clear up into May and then make a good crop of seed and a hay crop besides.

I do not think it lasts as long as alfalfa for pasturing in the fall.

There is no bad effect on the milk of cows pasturing on sweet clover or eating the hay. I refer to the white blooming variety.

I am absolutely positive about it not bloating any kind of stock and it will not give horses the heaves like alfalfa sometimes will.

A good crop of seed averages from about four bushels to 15 bushels per acre. I have had it yield as much as 15 bushels per acre.

I consider it equal to alfalfa as a feed; that is the reason I am growing it in preference to alfalfa, one of the reasons, at least.

WILL BASE POINT OF DEFENSE ON SECTION OF CLAYTON ACT

Attorneys for Organized Baseball Will Contend That as it Deals in Labor It Cannot Be Said to Violate Anti-trust Law.

Chicago, Jan. 19.—One of the points in the defense of organized baseball in the anti-trust suit brought against it by the Federal League which will be heard tomorrow will be based on Sec. 6 of the Clayton act recently passed by congress according to a report here tonight. The action which the attorneys for the defense are expected to recite reads: "That the labor of a human being is not a commodity or article of commerce."

The Federal League's bill of complaint asks that organized baseball be declared a trust in "restraint of trade and commerce", it was said tonight the attorneys for the defendants would contend that as organized baseball deals in labor it cannot be said to violate the law.

It was said tonight that no more affidavits would be filed before the opening of the case. The additional testimony to be presented probably will be verbal. President Tener of the National League is among those likely to take the witness stand. It was generally predicted that Judge Landis, before whom the case will be heard and who is widely known as a baseball enthusiast, will use his knowledge of the game in questioning witnesses.

Mothers Tell of Mother's Friend

Experience is or should be our best teacher. Women who have obeyed the highest and noblest of all sacrifices, the struggle for the life of others, should have a better idea of helpful influence than those who theorize from observation. At any rate when a prospective grandmother urges her daughter to do as she did—to use "Mother's Friend," there is ample reason to believe it the right kind of advice.

"Mother's Friend" is an external application for expectant mothers. Its purpose is to furnish pliancy to the muscles, to take away the strain on the cords and ligaments, to relieve the tension of nerves and tendons so apt to provoke or aggravate nausea, morning sickness, twitchings of the limbs and so on.

Although, in the nature of things, a woman would use "Mother's Friend" but rarely, yet so effective has it been found that this splendid remedy is on sale in most drug stores throughout the United States. It has been prepared by Bradford Regulator Co., 500 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., and advertised by us for over forty years. This is a fine record for such a special remedy and the grateful letters received to-day are just as appreciative as were those of years ago notwithstanding that methods are supposed to have greatly advanced. Ask at the drug store for a bottle of "Mother's Friend." It is worth while.

What is said herein of "Mother's Friend" is but a repetition of the thoughts expressed by thousands of happy mothers who have successfully used this splendid external application.

SHURTLEFF WAS BADLY DEFEATED

ILLINOIS PROVES VICTOR BY SCORE OF 38 TO 11.

Coach Harmon Uses Second Team Men in First Half Against Alton School.—Illinois Plays Wesleyan Tonight at Bloomington.—McKendree Comes Friday Night.

Shurtleff college basketball team was no match for Illinois college last night, the score being 38 to 11. There was a large crowd at Strawn's hall to witness the game and the local players gave a good account of themselves, clearly outclassing their opponents.

Coach Harmon was anxious to give his second string men a chance, so sent them in from the very start, and they played up through the first half and part of the second half, making twenty three of the points scored by Illinois. The first team was then sent in and ran the score up eleven more points. Hill and Barnes took the place of Capps and Harmon for a short time.

Illinois college plays Wesleyan university at Bloomington tonight and the Illinois team should be in good shape for the contest. Bloomington has been playing a fast game this season. In the last game they had with William and Vashiti, the contest ended in a misinterpretation of the rules, the score being 23 to 23. On Friday night Hedding college comes for a game here. McKendree has been doing some clever work in throwing the ball and the game promises to be a fast one from start to finish.

The score last night follows:

40,000 BORN IN BELGIUM SINCE IT WAS INVADED

According to a letter from Will Irwin, the writer, sent by him to the American Relief Commission's office in New York City, "even allowing for the reduction of the birth rate due to the war, there have been 40,000 births in Belgium since the invasion started. There will be 40,000 more," he writes. "In this winter of hardship and privation. How many of the newly arrived 40,000 have already died unnecessarily—undecorated, unsung victims of this war—no one will ever know. How many of the coming 40,000 will die this winter depends upon us in America—upon how much food we send to the nursing mothers, how much milk to the babies."

ROADS VERY ROUGH.

The country roads in this vicinity are reported as being very rough. The highways were in fair shape until the recent thaw when they became very muddy and were badly cut up by traffic. Then the colder weather came and now the roads are extremely rough and compel slow travel over them.

ANOTHER GREAT AUDIENCE AT NORTHMINSTER

Rev. Mr. Spooner Heard in Forceful Sermon—Music Still Important Feature.

Another large audience gathered at Northminster church last evening to enjoy the services which as usual were very interesting and impressive. A half hour song service preceded the sermon. Prof. Beckman sang a solo, "Grace greater than sin." An addition to the choir of William S. Lorton and his large bass viol was enjoyed. The theme of the evening was "Girls meaner than boys." The text was Isaiah 38:17, "Behold for peace I had great distress but thou hast in love to my soul delivered me from the pit of corruption: for thou hast cast all my sins behind my back."

Some of the points and pithy sayings are given:

I wish some of you old sin soaked sinners were as good as the children.

It wouldn't take a load of dynamite to blow up some Jacksonville men for they are so small they could be put through a keyhole.

Many business men are devoted to their business and attend to it under all circumstances but they can't get up soon enough Sunday morning to attend Sunday school and are too tired to go to church Sunday night.

I like a real girl and not one made up.

The human body should be a fit temple for the soul and not a clothes rack.

The stratagems of Satan to ruin souls are numerous. Sometimes he boldly hurries them to perdition and then at others he ruins by rendering them victims to some peculiar temptation or besetting sin. One man has pride, another avarice, another a violent temper, another is indifferent or lazy and all these things are used by the enemy of souls.

Others are ruined by inattention to the needs of the soul, while many are inclined to unbelief.

My text leads us to contemplate the refugees to which men flee for sinners often feel the need of a refuge. There is the internal sense of guilt which even pagans have.

Sudden adversity or bereavement will bring a man to feel the need of a Redeemer. Supposed nearness of death will often fill men with fear as was the case with the noted infidel Voltaire. Sometimes the preaching of the word will arouse men as was the case with Felix and others.

Sinners often betake themselves to refuges of lies, they partially reform, make outward professions but are wrong within. Sometimes they adhere rigidly to sect or party; sometimes they give money liberally; they often think the mercy of God will save them; but all such refuges of lies will be ultimately swept away; Christ is the only safe refuge.

The subject for this evening will be, "The big quarrel in Jacksonville."

BANKERS ENJOYED REUNION IN JACKSONVILLE

In accordance with the social program outlined in Tuesday's Journal ex-presidents of the Illinois Bankers association were in the city as the guests of E. E. Crabtree, one of their number. Frank Elliott and Andrew Russell also being in the list of ex-presidents, so that Jacksonville is more largely represented than any other city except Chicago. Nearly all of the visitors arrived early Tuesday morning in a special sleeper over the Wabash and they told a number of Jacksonville friends during the day that because of Mr. Crabtree's splendid hospitality the reunion had been declared the most enjoyable they had ever held.

At the dinner Tuesday night each guest was given a very handsome engraved booklet as a souvenir of the event. On the cover was a facsimile of an ex-president's badge in blue and gold. A brief statement giving the date, place and name of the gathering appeared on the next page together with a photograph of the Crabtree home. Succeeding pages provided space for pictures of August Blum of Chicago, one of the bankers responsible for the annual reunion plan, H. H. Harris, who died during the year, and J. S. Alsthorpe, the present presiding officer; the names of all ex-presidents, together with a group picture of them, and newspaper clippings. The guests and their host left over the Wabash at 9:45 for Chicago to attend the midwinter meeting of the executive council of the Illinois Bankers' association today.
